Mrs. P. S. Wilson Passes Away

On Friday, August 29th, there passed away from our midst Mrs. Peter S. Wilson, gaining the respect and love of all who knew her. She was spared much suffering as the end came in sleep after the briefest illness.

A native of Falmouth, Nova Scotia, she left for the States with husband and family in the year 1880; afterwards coming to Didsbury in 1896, where she has resided 23 years.

Associated with all good work, she was a member of the Baptist church and left behind her the choice heritage of a good and noble life.

The funeral took place on Monday Sept. 1st, conducted by the Rev. S. Hassall of Olds, assisted by Rev. Clements. The service was held in the Evangelical church where a large number of friends present to show their sympathy to the bereaved.

A sorrowing family paid their tribute to a loved wife and mother. The chief mourners were as follows: Mr. Peter S. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Wilson and family, Mr. and Mrs. B. Lucas (Amy) and family of Carstairs, Mrs. N. A. Currie (Lena) of Meechee, Mr. Arthur Wilson and daughter of Olds, Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Wilson of Three Hills. Those unable to be present were Mrs. Ada Parker of North Bend, Oregon, Mr. Leslie Wilson and Mr. Bert Wilson of Watson, Sask.

Many floral tributes were sent.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all our friends and neighbors for their kindly assistance and their sympathy during the brief illness and at the death of our beloved wife and mother.

CHRISTIAN FUNDAMENTALS

Interdenominational Conference

Calgary, Sept. 10th to 14th

There is to be held in Calgary from September 10th to 14th a Bible Conference on "Christian Fundamentals" at which men of international reputation are to speak. Some of these are Dr. A. C. Dixon, late of Spurgeon's Tabernacle, London, England; Dr. Wm. Pettingill, Dean of the Philadelphia Bible School; Rev. W. B. Riley, D.D., Superintendent of the North-Western Bible Training School, Minneapolis; Dr. J. C. Massee, of Dayton, Ohio, and others.

The meetings are to be undenominational and will be held in the First Baptist Church and Grace Presbyterian Church.

The Calgary Conference is one of a chain of similar conferences to be held in Western Canada, and which are intended to counteract the destructive criticism so prevalent at the present time.

All the meetings are open to the public.

The Chairman of the committee arranging for the Conference is Mr. T. Humphries, the well-known Presbyterian layman.

Mischievous Boys.

Lads taking automobiles for joy rides in town on Saturday night were the means of causing quite a commotion amongst car owners. Const. Sick took the matter in hand and found the cars and also caught one or two of the lads. The constable states that more drastic measures will be taken if these boys persist in their pranks.

Didsbury Team Wins.

The football team won the game at Carstairs on Tuesday night by a score of 5-1. Next Wednesday, Sept. 10th, a game will be played on the home grounds at 6 p.m. sharp. A collection will be taken which will be given to the G.W.V.A. club. Full practice of the local team Friday and Monday night.

She had thought she could say yes or no to any question, he could ask, but as he poured forth these plain passionate words she found herself enveloped in a flame that found no expression in speech. She had no words. She was glad when he went on.

"I know I'm only a boy, an' you're only a girl. That's why I don't ask no pledge. I leave you free, only I want you to stay free until I have my chance. Will you promise that?"

She tried to pull herself together.
"You know I've had a good time with you, Dave," she said, "and I've gone with you everywhere, like I would not have gone with any other boy I ever knew, and I've talked and let you talk about things I never talked about before, and I believe you're true and clean, and—and—"

"Yes," he said. "What's your answer?"

"I know you're true and clean," she repeated. "Come to me—like that—when I'm a woman and you're a man, and then—then we'll know."

He was tall and straight, and his shadow fell across her face, as though even the moon must not see.
"Reenie," he said, "kiss me."

For one moment she thought of her mother. She knew she stood at the parting of the ways; that all life for her was being moulded in that moment. Then she put both her arms about his neck and drew his lips to hers.

CHAPTER FOUR.

Dave's opportunity came sooner than he expected. After the departure of the Hardys things at the old ranch were, as both father and son had predicted, very different. They found themselves on a sort of good behaviour; a behaviour which, un-happily, excited in each other grave suspicions as to purpose. Between these two men rude courtesies, or considerations of any kind had been so long forgotten that attempts to reintroduce them resulted in a sort of estrangement more dangerous than the old open hostility. The tension steadily increased, and both looked forward to the moment when something must give way.

For several weeks the old man remained entirely sober, but the call of the appetite in him grew more and more insistent as the days went by,

and at last came the morning when Dave awoke to find him gone. He needed no second guess; the craving had become irresistible and his father had ridden to town for the means to satisfy it. The passing days did not bring his return, but this occasioned no anxiety to Dave. In the course of a carouse his father frequently remained away for weeks at a stretch, and at such times it was Dave's custom to visit the boys on a ranch a dozen miles over the foothills to the southward. These boys had a sister, and what was more natural than that Dave should drown his loneliness in such company?

But this time he did not ride southward over the hills. He moped around the ranch buildings, sat moodily by the little stream, casting pebbles in the water, or rode over the old trails on which she had so often been his companion. The season was bright with all the glory of the foothill September; the silver dome of heaven, cloudless morning and noon, ripened with the dying day into seas of gold on which floated cloud-islands of purple and amethyst, and through the immeasurable silence of the night moon and stars bathed the deep valleys in celestial effulgence. But in the heart of the boy was neither sun, nor moon, nor stars, but only the black gulfs of loneliness from which his light had gone out.

Then the old man's horse came home. Dave saw it coming up the trail, not running wildly, but with nervous gallop and many sidelong turnings of the head. As the boy watched he found a strange emptiness possess him; his body seemed a phantom on which his head hung over-heavy. He spoke to the horse, which pulled up, snorting, before him; noted the wet neck and flanks, and at last the broken stirrup. Then, slowly and methodically, and still with that strange sensation of emptiness, he saddled his own horse and set out on the search....

After the last rites had been paid to the old rancher Dave set about at once to wind up his affairs, and it was not until then that he discovered how deeply his father had been involved. The selling of the cattle and the various effects realized only enough to discharge the liabilities, and when this had been done Dave found himself with a considerable area of unmarketable land, a considerable bundle of paid bills, and his horse, saddle and revolver. He rode his horse to town, carrying a few articles of wear with him. It was only after a stiff fight he could bring himself to part with his one companion. The last miles into town were ridden very slowly, with the boy frequently leaning forward and stroking the horse's neck and ears.

"Tough doin's, ol' Slop-eye," he would say. "Tough doin's. But it's got to be done. I can't keep you in town; I ain't like out on the old ranch. An' I got a bigger job now than ever you an' me stood in on, an' we've stood in on some big ones, too, ain't we? But that's gone an' done; that old life's all busted, all of a sudden, like a bottle. Busted an' run out. I got a big job on now, an' you can't take no part. You jus' got to get out. You're done, see?" He sold horse and saddle for sixty dollars and took a room at a cheap hotel until he should find work and still cheaper lodgings.

In the evening he walked through the streets of the little cow-town.
It was not altogether new to him; he had frequently visited it for business or pleasure, but he had never felt the sense of strangeness which oppressed him this night. In the past he had always been in the town as a visitor; his roots were still in the ranch; he could afford to notice the ways of the town, and smile to himself a whimsical smile and go on.
But now he was throwing in his lot with the town; he was going to be one of it, and it stretched no arms of welcome to him. It snubbed him with its indifference.... He became aware that he was very lonely. He became aware that the gathering twilight in the great hills had never seemed so vague and empty as the dusk of this strange town. He realized that he had but one friend in the world; but one, and of her he knew not so much as her address....
He began to wonder whether he really had a friend at all; whether the girl would not discard him when he was of no further use just as he had discarded his faithful old horse.

Tears of loneliness and remorse gathered in his eyes, and a mist not of the twilight blurred the street lamps now glimmering from their poles. He felt that he had treated the horse very shabbily indeed. He wanted old Slop-eye back again. He suddenly wanted him with a terrible longing; wanted him more than anything else in the world. For a moment he forgot the girl, and all his homesickness centred about the beast which had been so long his companion and servant and friend.

"I'll buy him back in the mornin', I will, sure as hell," he said in a sudden gust of emotion. "We got to stick together. I didn't play fair with him, but I'll buy him back.
Perhaps I can get a job for him, too, pullin' a light wagon, or somethin'."

The resolution to "play fair" with Slop-eye gradually restored his cheerfulness, and he walked slowly back to the hotel, looking in at many window displays as he went on. Half shyly he paused before a window of women's wear; fine, filmy things, soft and elusive, and he supposed, very expensive. He wondered if Reenie bought clothes like that to wear in her city-home. And then he began to look for a brown sweater, and to move from window to window, and presently he found himself at his hotel.

The men's sitting room now presented a much more animated picture than when he had registered earlier in the evening. It was filled with ranchers, cowboys, and cattlemen of all degree; breeders, buyers, traders, owners and wage-earners, with a sprinkling of townspeople and others not directly engaged in some phase of the cattle business. The room was strong with smoke and language and expectation and goodfellowship, to which the mandolin carousal of the line-up at the bar furnished appropriate accompaniment. Through the smoke he could see another room farther back, in which were a number of pool tables; loud voices and loud laughter, and occasional awe-inspiring rips of profanity betokened deep interest in the game, and he allowed himself to drift in that direction. Soon he was in a group watching a gaudily dressed individual doing a sort of sleight-of-hand trick with three cards on a table.

"Smooth guy that," said some one at his side. The remark was evidently intended for Dave, and he turned toward the speaker. He was a man somewhat smaller than Dave; two or three years older; well dressed in town clothes; with a rather puffy face and a gold-filled tooth from which a corner had been broken as though to accommodate the cigarette which hung there. He blew a slow double stream of smoke from his nostrils and repeated, "Smooth guy that."

"Yes," said Dave. Then, as it was apparent the stranger was inclined to be friendly, he continued, "What's the idea?"

The stranger nudged him gently.
"Come out of the bunch," he said, in a low voice. When they had moved a little apart he went on, in a confidential tone: "He has a little trick with three cards that brings him in the easy coin. He's smooth as grease, but the thing's simple. Oh, it's awful simple. It's out of date with the circuses in the States—that was where I got wise to it—but it seems to get 'em here. Now you watch him for a minute," and they watched through an opening in the crowd about his table. The player held three cards; two red ones and a black. He passed them about rapidly over the table, occasionally turning his hand sideways so that the on-lookers could see the position of the cards. Then he suddenly threw them, face down, on the table, each card by itself.

"The trick is to locate the black card," Dave's companion explained.
"It's easy enough if you just keep your eye on the card, but the trouble with these rubes is they name the card and then start to get out their money, and while they're fumbling for it he makes a change so quick they never see it. There's just one way to beat him. Get up close, but don't say you're going to play; just pretend you're getting interested.
Then when you're dead sure of a card, crack your fist down on it.
Glue yourself right to it, and get out your money with the other hand.
When he sees you do that he'll try to bluff you; say you ain't in on it, but you just tell him that don't go, this is an open game and he's got to come through, and the crowd'll back you up. I stuck him one—a whole hundred first crack—and then he har-red me. Watch him."

Increase in Use of Opiates.

The increase in the consumption of opiates in Canada last year was so marked that the Government has considered it necessary to impose restrictions on such imports. They may now be brought in only by license.
In 1918 a total of 12,471 pounds of crude opium was imported, while in the fiscal year ended March 31 of this year it had jumped to the total of 34,263 pounds. Of powdered opium, 51 pounds was imported in 1918 and 123 in 1919. The value of the crude opium brought in 1918 was $148,346.
In the recent fiscal year it was $534, 555. Much the same situation obtains in regard to cocaine and morphine.

Land Around Didsbury Very Valuable.

One of the highest prices ever received for a whole section of land in this district was paid last week for the Chris Nohren farm, just south of town, now occupied by Mr. Sam Long. The price paid $55 per acre, or $35,000 for the whole farm. The purchaser was Mr. W. H. Bell and the deal was put through by Mr. Norman Paton.

Lest We Forget

Monuments like the Cathedral of Cologne, or Westminster Abbey, or St. Peter's in Rome, are centres of patriotic feeling.

The editor has been waiting for some time for someone to suggest some suitable monument to those gallant men from this district who gave up their lives that we might enjoy the liberties of free men and women.

Our suggestion is that this monument should be as simple as possible and one that everybody who wanted to could have the privilege of assisting to build.
This may appear at first sight an impossibility, but a second thought will show that it is not impossible.

The suggestion is that a cairn of rocks be built with a small granite block placed on the top with the names of our honored dead engraved thereon. This cairn to be built of a rock carried to the cairn by every person who feels that they want to contribute something and by doing this feel that they have had something to do personally with building the monument. No matter how much money was subscribed for any other purpose the personal element would not enter in so well.
After a certain length of time allowed for the gathering of the rocks the whole could be cemented together. This cairn, preferably, should be placed in the town park, perhaps on the butte.

Inside the cairn could be placed a sealed receptacle containing the names of these men, the engagement in which they lost their lives, and other data concerning the big war, also any other official records of the district that would be suitable.

No names should be allowed to be put on the rocks. The reason for this is that lots of people might want to put their names on the rocks to show their contribution, but those inside the cairn would not show and the outside ones would, which would cause a certain amount of bad feeling.

A small committee could be given charge of the matter and we believe that it would be carried out with enthusiasm.

A small amount of money would be needed to buy the granite block and to engrave it and to buy the cement, but that could easily be arranged.

BERGEN NEWS

Mr. Fred. Admussen and family have arrived home from ever-seas. Mr. Admussen went overseas with the 238th Batt. in 1916.

Martin and Carl Arneson have been fencing for Mr. Good on his ranch, west of Bergen.

Mose Olsen has bought a swell saddle horse and is now working on a cattle ranch south west of Bergen.

Mr. George Rhoads is home from his horse buying and can be found at home for a few days.
He is thinking of going to Montana in the near future to buy 500 horses. Everyone wishes grandpa the best of luck.

The berry patch at the mill will be open now for a few days so let's all go early and avoid the rush.

The homesteads are rapidly being taken up west of Bergen.
The returned boys are sure carrying on with the same good cheer as they fought in France.

Mr. Ira Gamble, of Highland, is still haying. It looks as tho' he is getting ready for running a livery stable.

Harvey McKnights is fencing his half section. He has it nearly completed. Dave Allen is helping and soon he expects to have a band of horses out to pasture for the winter.

David Allen will start fencing his homestead and his soldiers' grant of 160 acres and will also pasture horses from the prairie.

Laugh When People Step On Your Feet

Try this yourself then pass it along to others. It works!

Onech! ? ! ? ! This kind of rough talk will be heard less here in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freezone when applied to a tender, aching corn stops soreness at once, and soon the corn dries up and lifts right out without pain.

He says freezone is an ether compound which dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding tissue or skin. A quarter of an ounce of freezone will cost very little at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Millions of American women will welcome this announcement since the inauguration of the high heels.

Some women marry for love, some for a home and a few to spite the other woman.

Health cannot be looked for in the child that is subject to worms, because worms destroy health by creating internal disturbances that retard development and cause serious weakness. Miller's Worm Powders expel worms and are so beneficial in their action that the systems of the little sufferers are restored to healthfulness, all the discomforts and dangers of worm infection are removed, and satisfactory growth is assured.

All That Is Necessary.

Prices of food have fallen 50 per cent. in Germany. You can buy a ham for $125 if you have the money and can find the ham.

Corns cripple the feet and make walking a torture, yet sure relief in the shape of Holloway's Corn Cure is within reach of all.

German Trade Disappointing

Unsafe To Dispatch Merchandise Without Payment in Cash.

London. — The wireless press Copenhagen correspondent writes that great hopes have been entertained in many quarters in Denmark since the armistice of a new period of enrichment through the resumption of trade with Germany, but that it is becoming evident that these hopes must be disappointing.

It is now realized that owing to Germany's critical financial position, it is highly unsafe to dispatch large quantities of merchandise to that country without payment in cash, and as this condition is rarely complied with very little business is being done. Meanwhile great satisfaction is expressed in Danish newspapers with the reported intention to establish a French Chamber of Commerce at Copenhagen.

Montreal As A Port

Handles Ocean Traffic Greater Than Any American City Except New York.

It may surprise some readers to learn that for the seven months or so during which it is open the port of Montreal handles ocean traffic greater than that of any American city except New York. Its tonnage is also steadily increasing and better methods of ice breaking have extended its season. It has strategic advantages similar to our own in being a railroad terminus and central distributing point for trade converging from a vast territory.

And Canada is alive to its great importance. The Dominion government co-operates liberally with local enterprise. Recently $28,000,000 has been spent on terminals, dredging, docks and other things necessary to security. The department of marine is at work deepening the St. Lawrence to thirty-five feet to the sea, and the channel should be complete in a short time.

They not only talk about things, but do them, and do them well. It is another example for our congressmen to ponder, as well as an incentive to our own activity.—New York Sun.

Now that the Duke of Devonshire's tenure of office as Governor-General of Canada is coming to a close, Canadians are turning their thoughts to the selection of a successor. Chinese Boycott Japanese Goods

Evidently Giving Japan Cause For Pretty Serious Thought.

One of the very interesting things happening just now in the world is the indignant boycott of Japanese goods by the Chinese people, a form of protest which is evidently giving Japan cause for pretty serious thought. So long as the wisdom of China maintains a peaceful boycott there is, seemingly, little that Japan can do but meditate on the fact that about 75 per cent. of her exports go normally to China, and wonder how long China will stick. Meantime the Chinese newspapers counsel the public against any action that can be construed as a departure from this peaceful procedure, and in nearly all the advertisements of Chinese merchants appears the phrase, "We sell no Japanese goods." A peaceful boycott might be called a cautious kind of revolution, and, as once said Confucius, "The cautious seldom err."—Christian Science Monitor.

Nothing Like It For Bronchitis And Weak Throat

Remarkable Cures in the Worst Cases Reported Daily.

Cures Without Using Drugs.

Doctors now advocate an entirely new method for treating bronchitis and irritable throat. Stomach dosing is no longer necessary.

The most approved treatment consists of a healing vapor resembling the pure air of the Adirondacks.

This soothing vapor is full of germ-destroying substances, and at the same time is a powerful healing agent. It is sent to the bronchial tubes and lungs through a skillfully devised inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket. Simplicity itself is the keynote of this splendid treatment.

CATTARRHOZONE is the name of this wonderful invention that is daily curing chronic cases of weak throat, bronchitis and catarrh. Every breath through the inhaler is laden with soothing, healing substances that destroy all diseased conditions in the breathing organs, it can't fail to cure because it goes where the trouble really exists, and doesn't attempt to cure an illness in the head or throat by means of medicine taken into the stomach. Cattarrhozone is a direct breathable scientific cure.

There is no sufferer from a grippy cold or any winter ill, that won't find a cure in Cattarrhozone, which is employed by physicians, ministers, lawyers and public men throughout many foreign lands. Large size lasts two months and cost $1.00 and is guaranteed; small size 50c, sample size 25c. all storekeepers and druggists, or the Cattarrhozone Co., Kingston, Canada.

Independence Is Real

South Africa Gains Advantage Through Being of British Empire.

London. — The Times' Capetown correspondent quotes the Cape Times' comment on Lord Milner's Oxford speech when his lordship emphasized the position of independence of the dominions within the league of nations.

"The independence which South Africa has gained," says the Cape Times, "is a real and tangible thing which owes its being to the existence of the link with the British Empire. The independence for which some cry is unreal and untangible and can never be achieved and if realizable would find South Africa short of the capacity to develop and ruinously handicapped in the struggles ahead."

Cool Comfort

It's Sunday morning—blazing hot, and pretty near a whole day before you for rest and recreation.

First, then—a shave. Whether you are going for a spin in the car, taking the family to church or visiting a neighbour, you cannot go with a day's growth of beard on your chin.

The thought of shaving won't be irksome if you own a Gillette Safety Razor—rather, you think of five minutes' cool comfort with the highest type of shaving edge ever developed. No man in the world can command a keener blade than the one you slip into your Gillette.

And if Gillette shaving gives you an added joy to your Sunday, why not take five minutes every morning for a clean shave as the start for a better day's work.

For $5.00—the price of the Gillette Safety Razor—you have your choice of the Standard Gillette sets, the Pocket Edition sets (just as perfect, but more compact), and the Bulldog Gillette with the stocky grip. Ask to see them TODAY at the jewellers', druggists' or hardware dealers.

War Saving Stamps Are Selling Well

Campaign In Canada Is Progressing Most Favorably.

That the War Savings Stamp Campaign in Canada is progressing most favorably is shown by comparing the per capita sales for the month of May, against those for the same period in the United States. In Canada during the month of May the per capita sales amounted to .054 while in the United States they were .06.

Considering that in the United States the War Savings Stamp Campaign commenced one year in advance of the campaign in Canada and that our American cousins had the stimulus of war propaganda for about a year to introduce the Thrift Stamps, the comparison is very favorable to this country.

SUMMER HEAT HARD ON BABY

No season of the year is so dangerous to the life of little ones as is the summer. The excessive heat throws the little stomach out of order so quickly that unless prompt aid is at hand the baby may be beyond all human help before the mother realizes he is ill. Summer is the season when diarrhoea, cholera infantum, dysentery and colic are most prevalent. Any one of these troubles may prove deadly if not promptly treated. During the summer the mother's best friend is Baby's Own Tablets. They regulate the bowels, sweeten the stomach and keep baby healthy. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

British Labor Will Not Act

District Branches Refused To Issue Ballots For Referendum.

London. — Direct action proposed by British Labor's triple alliance in the form of a referendum on political subjects, is said by the Evening News to have been killed by the refusal of the transport workers' federation to take part in it. The newspaper said the federation had decided to have nothing to do with the movement and that its district branches had refused to issue ballots for the referendum.

The triple alliance is composed of the railwaymen, transport workers and miners. The alliance on July 23 decided to take a vote of its members on Labor's political demands, including conscription, Russian intervention, the release of conscientious objectors and the use of the military in labor disputes.

DELICATE YOUNG GIRLS

Need New Red Blood to Give Them Health and Strength.

Does your daughter inherit a delicate organization from you? The anemia of young girls may be inherited, or it may be caused by bad air, unsuitable food, hasty and irregular eating, insufficient out-of-door exercise and not enough rest and sleep.

It comes on gradually, beginning with languor, indisposition to mental or bodily exertion, irritability and a feeling of fatigue. Later comes palpitation of the heart, headache, dizziness following a stooping position, frequent headaches and breathlessness. In a majority of cases constipation is present. There may be no great loss of flesh, but usually the complexion takes on a greenish-yellow pallor.

Cases of this kind, if neglected, become serious, but if taken in time there is no need to worry. The treatment is quite easy and simple. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which are free from any harmful or habit-forming drug, are just the tonic needed to remedy this wretched state of health. Though it is not noticeable, improvement actually begins with the first dose. As the blood is made rich and red, the color leaves the face, strength and activity gradually return and if the treatment is continued until the last symptom disappears, the danger of a relapse is very slight.

If any symptom of anaemia appears, prudence suggests that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills should be given at once, and the sooner they are taken the more speedily will the trouble be overcome. You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for 2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Controller Will Not Give Way.

London. — There is apparently going to be a fight to a finish in the strike of the 200,000 Yorkshire miners. The coal controller told the men's leaders it was impossible to concede their demands. To do so, he said, would mean a strike in every coal field in the country for similar concessions.

No further conference with a view of arriving at a settlement have been arranged. It is believed the strikers' funds will only last another fortnight. Already a quarter of a million pounds sterling have been spent in strike pay.

Paris. — The supreme council of the peace conference, it was announced, has advised the Austrian delegation that the Allied and associated powers have decided that the new Austrian government must be called the "Republic of Austria." These notes related to proposed changes in the Austrian peace treaty. In some cases the only alteration in the clauses was the change of the Austrian government's name to German-Austria.

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Catarrhal Deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or impaired hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing may be destroyed for ever. AN EVENING of MERRIMENT DON'T MISS IT

Farmers Give Opinion Before Wheat Board

Winnipeg. — The Canadian wheat board says it hopes to be in a position to make public the plans and regulations for the handling of the 1919 wheat crop some time this week.

"In the meantime," the board says in its statement, "in order to obviate undue hardship to the producer, the Canadian wheat board suggests that, temporarily, farmers should deliver their wheat to the elevators and obtain storage tickets therefor. The elevator companies or banks will undoubtedly make satisfactory advances against these storage tickets. When later the regulations and methods in connection with the pooling system are known, the farmers can convert the storage tickets issued by the elevator companies into cash tickets and secure the initial payment, as fixed by the board, and receipts enabling them to obtain participation certificates at a later date."

What might be construed as a veiled threat on the part of the farmers to go on strike if the government fixes the initial price of wheat at anything less than the $2.26 guaranteed by the United States to its producers, was made by J. K. McLennan, representing the United Farmers of Ontario, at the open session of the Canadian Wheat board in the Winnipeg Grain Exchange.

"We are facing a short crop," he said. "If the $1.75 initial price rules, we may find the crop returns still lower. Strikes are popular and the farmers might be inclined to catch on. The farmers are cross already."

The board room was packed to the doors with the representatives of various interests, including millers, bakers, consumers, farmers, grain growers and board officials. James Stewart, chairman of the board, presided. The meeting was called for the purpose of ascertaining the will of those interested in the handling and marketing of the 1919 grain crop of Canada, as well as that of the general public.

Other outstanding features of the meeting were:

An emphatic denial from the chairman that the initial price had been fixed by the government at $1.75; he declared that such a price had not even been considered.

A resolution from grain growers of Little Souris strongly condemning and denouncing the scheme as impracticable and unsound economics and demanding that if the government is determined to handle the 1919 wheat crop that the same price as last year be set.

A violent attack on ocean freight rates by J. K. McLennan. He declared it now costs 60 cents to get a bushel of wheat across the Atlantic, in comparison with six cents for pre-war days. Eighteen cents was the highest figure justifiable, he declared.

A further statement was made by Mr. McLennan that "there are heavy millers, big grain men and freight men in this country who are taking advantage of their positions to rake in big sums of money."

An insistent demand was made by almost all speakers that if an open market is denied the farmers and the government plan of handling the wheat is carried out, that the initial price be not made less than that of $2.26, now ruling in the United States.

J. R. Murray, of the United Grain Growers, thought the only way to arrive at a fair price for the farmers was to give them the prices obtaining on the open world market. Otherwise nothing less than the $2.26 of the United States should be set. If the consumer must have cheap bread, he added, in fairness let it come through a government bonus rather than at the expense of the farmers.

Grocer Fined $500 For Selling Sugar At 15 Cents Per Pound.

Washington. — Important new developments in the government's fight to reduce the high cost of living have now been made public.

One of the most interesting was the announcement by Attorney-General Palmer that the first federal conviction for profiteering had been obtained. District Attorney Lucey telegraphed from Binghamton, N.Y., that a retail grocer had been fined $500 for selling sugar at 15 cents a pound. No details were given and the law under which the case was brought was not known here.

"A few good cases of profiteering in each state will settle that trouble," Mr. Palmer remarked. In order to bring to book persons guilty of raising prices exorbitantly or hoarding food to advance prices, Mr. Palmer submitted to the agricultural committees of congress the draft of an amendment to the Food Control act extending its provisions to clothing and containers of foods and feeds, and providing a penalty of $5,000 fine or two years' imprisonment or both for violation of the law.

To Prosecute Bela Kun.

Copenhagen. — The Hungarian public prosecutor has issued an announcement that proceedings will be begun against all individuals charged with crimes during the Bela Kun dictatorship, and that steps have already been taken for their arrest and extradition, according to advices from Budapest.

Another announcement says that it is intended to prosecute Bela Kun and his associates for murder, robbery and forgery.

To Combat High Cost of Living.

Winnipeg. — Concerted action by all military and labor organizations in a fight for the reduction of the high cost of living was suggested in a letter from the Order of Railway Conductors, division 604, considered at a meeting of the Army and Navy Veterans' association executive. The suggestion was unanimously adopted, and a committee was appointed to co-operate.

Must Leave Dominion

Schoppelrei Ordered Deported By the Immigration Board of Inquiry.

Winnipeg. — Oscar Schoppelrei, branded as an undesirable alien, and ordered deported by the immigration board of inquiry, must leave Canada. The Manitoba court of appeal refused to grant an application made by counsel in Schoppelrei's behalf that the deportation order be annulled and all proceedings quashed.

The high court in its written judgment found that the order for Schoppelrei's deportation was based on two grounds: first, that he had come into the country by misrepresentation; and secondly, that he had refused to answer certain questions put to him by officials. Their lordships pointed out that under section 23 of the immigration act they had no jurisdiction to interfere.

Six Months On Ice Floe.

Edmonton. — Six months adrift on an ice floe in the Arctic sea, cut off from all civilisation by miles of deep water, such was the experience of Storker T. Storkersen who arrived in the city last night from the great northern wastes. Observations of great scientific value were made while the party was on the ice floe, but these will not be fully discussed until Storkersen meets his chief, Steffansson in Banff next Saturday and prepares his full report.

Conference of Brewers.

Atlantic City, N. J. — Believing that a revulsion of feeling against prohibition can be concentrated for the repeal of the liquor statutes, the brewers of the nation have called a big conference here for September 28. The meeting will continue a week.

On a Little Visit.

Berlin. — With the permission of the Dutch government, the former German crown prince has just spent several days with his wife and children at Soden, Prussia, and accompanied them part of the way back to Potsdam, according to the Lokal Anzeiger. The newspaper adds that Frederick William has now returned to Holland.

Allied Success In North Russia

Good News of Contest With the Bolsheviks on Russian Front.

London. — Six Bolshevik battalions were destroyed in a successful Anglo-Russian attack on the Dyina river on August 10, the war office has announced. More than 1,000 prisoners, 12 field guns and many machine guns were captured. The Anglo-Russian front on the Dyina was pushed forward 12 miles. The official statement reads:

"In North Russia, Anglo-Russian troops, on August 10, attacked the Bolshevik forces on the Dyina with great success. All the objectives were gained. Six enemy battalions were destroyed, the troops being either killed, captured or dispersed. More than 1,000 prisoners, 12 field guns and many machine guns were captured. Our line on the Dyina was advanced 12 miles to Thadova and Borsk."

Curb Profiteering In Britain

Amendment Passed British House Empowering the Board of Trade To Fix Prices.

London. — The house of commons, after heated debate, adopted an amendment to the profiteering bill, empowering the board of trade, after an investigation, to fix wholesale and retail prices. The vote was 132 to 95.

The amendment was denounced, among others, by Lord Robert Cecil, former minister of war trade, who expressed amazement that the government should accept an amendment destroying the whole basis of the bill and revolutionizing the trade of the country. Sir Donald Maclean, a Liberal member, also denounced the amendment, characterizing it as "rank socialism of the most muddled kind."

In the course of the discussion on the bill, Sir Auckland Geddes, minister for national service and reconstruction, indicated that the bill would empower the board of trade to fix prices in a case where the community was likely to be bled by any combination, national or international, for the purpose of increasing prices. An amendment seeking to include profiteering in rentals within the scope of the bill was rejected.

Ferdinand's Millions

Seizure of Securities Will Not Altogether Ruin the Ex-Monarch.

Geneva. — The seizure in England of securities belonging to former King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, valued at $2,000,000, will not altogether ruin the ex-monarch, according to reliable information obtained here.

It is said that Ferdinand toward the end of 1914 took the precaution of placing his fortune abroad, mostly in neutral countries. Swiss banks, for instance, are said to hold stocks and bonds belonging to Ferdinand, valued at nearly a million pounds sterling.

Large sums were also placed in Hungary where Ferdinand is now a fugitive with his family.

Prince's Visit to U.S. Is Uncertain.

Ottawa. — Nothing is known as yet at the capital as to when the Prince of Wales is likely to visit the United States or the duration of his stay in that country. No decision will be reached in regard to the matter until later, but it is certain that the prince cannot leave Canada until the conclusion of his Canadian tour.

"Bavarian Free State."

Copenhagen. — A despatch from Bamberg, under date of Tuesday, says that the Bavarian diet has adopted a constitution for the "Bavarian free state." There were three dissenting votes. A Socialist amendment to the constitution, abolishing all titles of nobility, was rejected.

Deserting One Big Union.

Vancouver, B.C. — Important desertions from the local ranks of the One Big Union took place here when the local unions of the international longshoremen, the ship workers and the pressmen and press feeders voted to resign from the One Big Union.

Board To Deal With High Cost Of Living

Ottawa. — The Canadian board of commerce has been officially constituted, with Judge H. A. Robson, of Winnipeg, as chairman, and W. F. O'Connor, K.C., former cost of living commissioner, as second member, and these two gentlemen have had a conference with the government and have already started work. Judge Robson has arrived in Ottawa and shortly afterward met members of the government. The third member of the board, it is expected, will be named within a couple of days.

The board will act under the Combines and Fair Prices act and is given power to institute investigations on its own motion or at the request of ministers or other responsible persons bringing matters to the notice of the board.

When seen by the Canadian Press, limited, Judge Robson was emphatic in his statement that there would be no fuss and formalities attached to the working of the board. "This is to be a people's court," he declared, "and to be so it must be easy to approach. Any bona fide citizen who has a just cause for complaint will find us ready to give him a hearing and we will get down to work just as soon as possible."

The chairman of the new board stated, however, that the board would of necessity investigate the facts behind a complaint before holding sittings at any point. This was necessary, he stated, because the board has jurisdiction from coast to coast, and a complaint might take them from Halifax to Vancouver on a wild goose chase if it were only made because of some man's theory.

The two members of the new body had a long conference and will be together most of the time during the next few days, drawing up simple rules of procedure and getting together the necessary small staff and other organization for their work. Judge Robson expects to return to Winnipeg within a short time to finish his work as chairman of the royal commission investigating the recent strike disorders there, but will be back in Ottawa again within a very short time.

To Aid Admiral Kolchak

Material Is Being Rushed to Vladivostok By the United States.

Washington. — Material aid for Admiral Kolchak's retreating army in Siberia is being rushed to Vladivostok by the United States. It was said officially, that 45,000 rifles and several million rounds of ammunition already had been sent from San Francisco, and that additional equipment would go forward this week on an army transport.

The amount of material ordered to Siberia was not disclosed but was said to be "very large" and to include motor vehicles and medical supplies, as well as rifles and ammunition.

The original consignment was materially increased after the recent reverse of Kolchak's army, it was said.

Serbia A Country Of Orphans

Invasion Carried Half a Million Children From Parents.

Belgrade. — The war has made Serbia a country of orphans. There are 200,000 who lost both their parents, and 300,000 more who lost one parent, according to statistics compiled by Red Cross workers from records in the Serbian educational department. Some towns of 10,000 inhabitants have between 2,000 and 3,000 orphans.

The occupation of Serbia for three years by the enemy and the subsequent deportations, combined with the great retreat in 1915, which carried half a million children in its wake, separated numberless children from their parents.

Feeding 20,000 Children.

Paris. — The American relief administration began the task of feeding 20,000 children in Budapest as part of its plan to give food to the children of Central Europe, it was announced. It was said this did not involve a general relaxation of the food blockade against Hungary.

A Vienna despatch received from London announced the Allies had lifted the blockade against Hungary, but there has been no formal announcement of this by the supreme council.

Hungary Seeks Loan.

Berlin. — A group of Hungarian banks will attempt to negotiate a loan for the new government at Budapest, according to despatches received here, the government having been unable to borrow the 1,500,000 crowns sought from Austro-Hungarian banks.

Rome. — The Italian troops attached to the allied expeditionary force in northern Russia left Murmansk on August 9. The Italian military commission accompanied the troops.

British Ambassador To U. S.

Viscount Grey Has Accepted the New Post Temporarily.

London. — Viscount Grey, former British secretary of state for foreign affairs, has agreed to represent the British government at Washington, pending the appointment of a permanent ambassador.

Viscount Grey of Falloden (Sir Edward Grey) comes to the United States to represent the British government after a brilliant career as head of the British foreign office. For eleven years, momentous in the political affairs of Europe, he was secretary of state for foreign affairs, from December 11, 1905, to December 11, 1916. Owing to several occasions during that period, it was the initiative of Sir Edward Grey that caused the gathering clouds of war to disappear. It was he who made the last effort to prevent the great European war when he urged the ambassadors of the leading powers to meet and discuss the situation in an attempt to put off hostilities. His effort failed through the attitude of the German government and the German emperor.

Gladstone, under whom Sir Edward served in his younger days, described him thus:

"I never knew in a man such aptitude for political life and such disinclination for it."

Since his retirement from the foreign office, Viscount Grey has been living in retirement in Northumberland. The new ambassador's eyes began to trouble him in 1918 and at one time it was reported he was totally blind. This report was exaggerated, but the viscount has difficulty in reading, although his eye trouble has improved somewhat.

General Currie Is Defended

Officer Says Criticism for Canadian Losses at Passchendaele Not Warranted.

Kingston, Ont. — Speaking at the banquet tendered to the visiting delegates to the convention of Union of Canadian Municipalities, General Sir Archibald MacDonell, the new commandant of the Royal Military College, defended General Sir Arthur Currie from the criticism levelled at him because of the losses suffered by the Canadians at Passchendaele.

General MacDonell, "the man who took Hill 70," said he was present when Sir Douglas Haig told General Currie to take Passchendaele, and the Canadians took it, after the Australians, New Zealanders and Britishers had failed.

Referring to the Canadian casualties, the speaker said, according to figures recently published, the Canadians suffered the lowest percentage of losses and made the highest percentage of gains.

Another speaker was Mayor Hardie, Lethbridge, who declared for a middle course on the liquor question, neither too wet nor too dry.

Keep The Place Up

There are times when anyone is apt to get discouraged.

Then again everything looks fine and prosperous.

Through all the ups and downs incident to farming or town life one thing is very necessary.

KEEP YOUR PLACE UP.

Allowing buildings to run down, fences and gates to become broken, etc., does not add to the selling value if you want sell and it indicates failure rather than prosperity.

It actually costs less to keep everything right up to date than to let it run down. Yearly repair bills on a well kept place are always less than on a place that is allowed to run down.

What Does Your Place Need To Put It In Good Condition Now?

If only repairs are necessary why not get the material now to do it with? — get a little extra and have it on hand.

Grain storage and machine storage should have particular attention this month.

We are equipped with plan service and material to serve you quickly, accurately and economically on any job, small or large.

Dr. J. L. Clark has moved into the former residence of Dr. A. G. Wear, on the corner of Shantz St., opposite his former residence.

It cost a farmer $14 in time and costs for leaving his team unfed opposite the stores last week. The case was tried before A. J. Malmas, J.P. Surely one fatal accident such as happened here last year through this cause should be lesson enough for us all without running the danger of another one.

A fatal accident happened at Olds last week when the nine year old son of Mr. Johnson, formerly town clerk of Olds, was run over by a freight train and instantly killed. The boy was playing on the tracks with several others at the time.

Two more patients were taken to the Calgary hospital suffering from appendicitis on Friday and Saturday last. Mrs. Art. Chamberlain was taken down on Friday, and Miss Evelyn Webster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Webster, was taken down on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hunsperger, who have been residents at Westcott for a good many years, left on the 20th for Chilliwack, B.C., where they will make their home for the future. Their many relatives and friends in the district bade them God speed and wished them good luck in their new home.

A man by the name of Petrie, who has been acting in a peculiar manner around town for some time was taken up by the provincial police on Saturday night for firing a revolver out of the Chinese restaurant where he boarded. It is likely that he will be taken to Ponoka.

The Institute extend hearty thanks to all who helped to make the social a success. Part of this amount will go toward furnishing a room in the new Didsbury hospital.

Who can answer this problem? I bought two articles for $150. I sold both, and lost four per cent. on what one cost me but gained six per cent on what the other cost me. I gained one and one-third per cent on the whole. What was the price of each? A copy of "The Flags of the Allies" will be given for the first correct answer opened on Tuesday morning next. The answer must contain in writing the rule by which such problems are solved. Mark your envelope "Problem," Pioneer Office, Didsbury.

Duck shooters did not have very great success in this district on Monday, the opening of the duck shooting season. Most of the nimrods had to go north as the sloughs here were dried up. However, those who took a chance of travelling several miles northeast returned with medium bags. Jim Phillipson says that the "fishing was excellent, begorra." The party he was with did not get so many ducks but they caught a good string of perch at Pine Lake.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. Morrison will be sorry to learn that their little daughter, Lorraine, passed away at the Holy Cross Hospital on Sunday morning last. The little one had been taken to Calgary to undergo an operation which seemed successful at the time but she finally succumbed as stated above. She was two years and nine months old. A sad feature of the case was that her mother has also been ill and was unable to be present at her little daughter's bedside. Mr. Morrison was present when death occurred. The funeral, which was largely attended, took place on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wigglesworth have received a letter from their son George, who is a lieutenant in the Air Service, stating that he expects to get home by October 1st. He is in good health but tired waiting for his turn to come, which has been delayed through the loss of his papers by the Aero Department. He is at Shawberry Camp, Shewsbury. To pass away the time George took a 150 mile cycle trip through Wales.
